The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized experience of each moment. By eliminating logistical worries, your multilingual Travel Director ensures that every aspect of your journey is tailored to your preferences. With these specialists at your side, become intimately engaged in the story of your life. A Wor ld Apart

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It is the tale of the people and places that you encounter along the way. Each journey is a chapter in the rich story of your life. But to truly experience the legend, you must dive deep into the narrative and explore the elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story begins with the guides and lecturers whose regional expertise shines in their talks and presentations. These experts share their knowledge and experiences, offering insights into the cultural, historical, and natural wonders of the places you visit.

The other important characters in this story are the guides, lecturers, and safari rangers whose perspective and commentary enrich your journey. These experts have spent years studying the landscapes and wildlife they guide you through, and their knowledge adds depth and meaning to your experience. They share stories of the animals they encounter, the places they visit, and the history of the regions you explore. Their insights bring the landscapes to life, making your journey an immersive experience.

This extension includes two nights at the Belmond Mount Nelson Hotel, two breakfasts, one lunch, a guided Cape Winelands tour, guide and meal gratuities, baggage handling at the hotel and all taxes.

A World Apart

The most memorable moments are the ones that are the most personal. It should come as no surprise, then, that you have chosen to embark on a journey of a lifetime. Throughout the trip, we want to ensure that you have the opportunity to create your own discovery, education and humanity, the best possible experience for you.

With these specialists at your side, become intimately engaged in Africa’s oldest city. Immerse yourself in the colorful gardens dotting the city’s landscape. A bustling waterfront welcomes visitors with inviting cafés and trendy bars. The Mother City is one of the world’s most beautiful cities. Centuries-old Cape Dutch houses and restored shipyards stand in stark contrast to modern skyscrapers. Sheltered by Table Mountain, South Africa’s highest sea cliff, the African penguins and a filming location for the movie "Babe" are among the many reasons why you should visit this iconic landmark.

In 1580, English navigator Sir Frances Drake arrived at Table Bay, the site of Cape Town. The city was founded in 1652 as a supply station for the Dutch East India Company’s ships. Today, the city is a vibrant hub of culture and commerce, with a thriving arts scene and world-class restaurants. Cape Town is considered to have the most diverse range of flora and fauna in the world, with more than 1,700 plant species and 450 bird species. The city is also home to the world’s southernmost tip of the African continent. Cape Point, where the Atlantic and Indian Oceans meet, is a popular destination for nature lovers and adventure seekers.

The Chobe River gives life to the northeastern corner of the country, providing water for a variety of wildlife. The river is home to crocodile, hippopotamus, and a variety of bird species, including the southern carmine bee-eater. The river also supports a variety of fish species, including the electric eel and the electric catfish. The river’s banks are lined with acacia trees, which provide shade for the river’s resident wildlife.

The most compelling travel experiences are not in books or on screen. It should surprise no one to discover that humanity’s finest achievements are not in museums, but rather in the hands of individuals who take pride in their work and in the way they interact with their environment. For travel to be truly personal, you must engage in a meaningful way with the people you meet. You should choose destinations that are authentic and support local economies. You should weave together discovery, education and humanity, the best elements of any compelling tale. Your personal travel story begins with a commitment to delivering authentic experiences with local people.

DRIVING THROUGH LANDSCAPES

South Africa

Driving through landscapes

The Cape Peninsula, at the tip of the southern African continent, is one of the most spectacular legs of any journey. This region offers a unique opportunity to explore the Cape of Good Hope, the southernmost point of Africa. The park is surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean to the west and the Indian Ocean to the east. It is considered to have the most diverse range of plant life in the world. At Cape Point, ascend the steps of the Victorian stairway and enter the Cape Point Heritage trail. The peninsular is a part of the Cape Floral Region, described by Dutch naturalist Willem Barentsz as “a garden of flowers that stretches for several miles.” It is considered to be the fairest cape in the whole circumference of the earth.”

Cape Town

Surrounded by the highest sea cliffs on the west side of South Africa, Cape Town is one of the most diverse cities in the world. It is the provincial capital of Western Cape and the seat of the provincial government. The city is home to a vibrant cultural scene, with a mix of European, African and Asian influences. The city is known for its sandy beaches, Victorian architecture, and scenic coastal views.

Cape Town harbour

With a brave spirit, the residents of Soweto are involved in projects at a grassroots level. The city is a microcosm of Africa, with a mix of African, Indian, and European influences. Soweto was once the main battleground in the war on apartheid, now offers opportunity and hope for a better future. No trip to southern Africa would be complete without a visit to Soweto. The township is home to a vibrant music scene, with a mix of traditional and modern influences. It is also home to a number of historic sites, including the Orlando Stadium, where Nelson Mandela was imprisoned.

Cape Point

The Cape Point Peninsula is one of the most scenic drives in the world. It is a mixture of sand dunes, forests, and coastal cliffs. The drive offers stunning views of the Atlantic Ocean and the Table Mountain National Park.

Cape Point Wildlife

Far to the south, the Cape of Good Hope marks the southernmost point of Africa. Here, you will find some of the most diverse plant life in the world. The Cape Peninsula is home to the Cape Floristic Region, which is considered to be one of the richest in the world. The region is home to over 4,000 plant species, including many that are found nowhere else in the world. The Cape Peninsula is also home to a number of historical sites, including the Cape of Good Hope Lighthouse, which was built in 1859.

ROBBEN ISLAND

Robben Island, near Cape Town, is where Nelson Mandela was imprisoned for 18 years. The island is now a museum that tells the story of the struggle against apartheid. The island is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit.

Cape Town Waterfront

The Cape Town Waterfront is one of the most popular tourist destinations in South Africa. It is a vibrant mix of modern architecture and historical buildings. The waterfront is home to a number of restaurants, bars, and shops. It is also home to a number of historic sites, including the Castle of Good Hope, which was built in 1652.

CAPE PENINSULA

In English the name is known as the Cape of Good Hope, but in the Cape Dutch language it was known as the “Spitsbergen.” The name was given to the cape by the Dutch explorer Willem Barentsz in 1596. After he had rounded the Cape, Barentsz asked his men to name it “Capetown,” around the cape you will find the beautiful town of Cape Town.

VICTORIA FALLS

The Victoria Falls is the world’s largest waterfall, and is considered one of the seven natural wonders of the world. The falls are located on the Zambezi River, which flows from the Victoria Falls to the Zambezi and the south. The river is a major source of water for the region, and is a popular destination for tourists. The falls are a popular destination for tourists, and are considered to be one of the most beautiful places in the world.

THE OCEAN AND THE CITY

Traveling through landscapes is one of the most exciting experiences you can have. You will find a mix of history, culture, and natural beauty. You can see the contrast between the cape and the city, with the city bustling with activity and the cape tranquil and serene. You can see the contrast between the cape and the city, with the city bustling with activity and the cape tranquil and serene. Dear Fordham Alumni and Friends,

We congratulate you on your association with Fordham University. We invite you to join us as we explore the wonders of Southern Africa, where you will experience both the natural wonders of this special region, as well as the colorful cities of Capetown and Johannesburg. You will enjoy the beauty of nature and the majesty of wildlife during this trip designed by a Fordham professor.

On the ground, three layers of top-quality professionals offer their insiders’ perspective. The breadth of their knowledge deepens your appreciation for the region’s history, culture, and natural beauty. A journey to Southern Africa is a journey to understand the region. As you travel through South Africa, Botswana, and Zimbabwe, you will have the opportunity to enhance your appreciation for science and history.

Throughout your journey, you will be in the care of a seasoned AHI travel director, who is fit and able to assist them, and who will be totally responsible for all arrangements. You will also be in the care of anyAHI Travel program that will operate in the current calendar year and conditions set out herein, including but not limited to the cancellation terms.
